The Automobile Dollar of China

By

D. KENDALL ALBERT, A.N.A. No. 27764

THE 1928 SILVER DOLLAR of the Chinese province of Kweichow, the so-called Automobile Dollar, is unique in being the only coin in the world depicting an automobile as a major part of the design. Consequently, it is much in demand by collectors. In fact, a recent survey indicated the Automobile Dollar is one of the ten most wanted crowns of the world.¹

After obtaining an Automobile Dollar for my collection, I become more curious about the coin. What is its historical significance? How many pieces were minted and what mint did the striking? Was all of the issue put into circulation? What is the metallic composition of the coin—its fineness? Surprisingly, I found very few facts about the coin. Mintage statistics, in particular, are lacking. Even the historical background is lacking in factual information and is sprinkled with speculation and intriguing superstitious legends.

This article is a brief summary of what little information I could gather about the Automobile Dollar. I have attempted to correlate information from both the literature and personal sources and have injected some opinions of my own in an effort to provide possible answers to some of the puzzling questions about this coin. It is hoped that such information, inconclusive as it may be, will at least point out some of the unsolved problems associated with the Automobile Dollar and perhaps prompt others to continue the search for definite answers. Also it is hoped that this article will illustrate to others, particularly to beginning collectors, the kind of numismatic challenge that can be found in collecting coins of the world, especially those of China.

Description

The obverse and reverse of the Automobile Dollar are shown in the accompanying photographs. In the center of the obverse is a floral crest which is surrounded by four characters meaning "Kweichow Silver Coin." Inscriptions at the top and bottom read "17th Year Of The Republic Of China" and "One Yuan," respectively. The beaded circle and the four-leaved rosettes appear also on the reverse, which portrays an automobile of the 1920s vintage resting on a horizontal line beneath which are some blades of grass. The inscription at the top reads "Made by the Kweichow Government," and at the bottom "7 Mace 2 Candareens."

Only one type of the Automobile Dollar exists; however, there are several varieties which are based, primarily, on small differences in details of the depicted automobile. Kann has classified these varieties and has discussed them in detail.²

The coin has a reeded edge and, as described by Kann, has a diameter of 39¼ mm., a thickness of 2½ mm., and a weight of 25.6 grams. The coin illustrated in this article has the same dimensions as described by Kann, but the weight is 25.8 grams. I do not know whether this difference of 0.2 grams represents a weight variation that might be expected among various Automobile Dollars or is because of difference in the accuracy of weighing—probably the latter.

Historical Significance

The Automobile Dollar was issued by order of the governor of Kweichow, General Chow Hsi-ch'eng, to commemorate the opening of the first motor road, the Provincial Highway, in Kweichow. To understand better the historical significance of the Automobile Dollar and why the automobile is portrayed on the coin, it is helpful to consider briefly some of the aspiring plans which Governor Chow had for the province of Kweichow.

Located in the deep interior of south China, Kweichow was relatively backward as far as communication and transportation were concerned. Apparently very few highways, if any, existed before General Chow's term of office (1926-1929). Shortly after becoming governor, General Chow initiated an ambitious road building program. Kweiyang, the provincial capitol, was General Chow's ambitious plans did not materialize fully because of his sudden death in 1929. Ironically, he was killed while riding in an automobile. It seems that because of the speed of his automobile he advanced too far ahead of his troops during a military engagement and was surrounded by the enemy and killed. Thus, as has been stated,³ General Chow's desire to have rapid communication was the indirect cause of his death.

Interestingly, there is another explanation, which has been proposed by virtually rebuilt as a result of General Chow's orders to widen arbitrarily the city streets and construct major highways, which extended from the city to the provincial borders in all directions. It seems that Governor Chow was ambitious to extend his rule to other provinces and eventually to all of China. If this was true, then his "crash" program to build extensive highway systems would have helped him to achieve this aim. Apparently he thought that the issuance of a coin which depicted an automobile would help to popularize road building throughout the province.

some Chinese soothsayers, of why the automobile design was placed on the coin. ^{4,5} According to the soothsayers, General Chow really wanted to have his own profile on the coin (and other provincial currency) in imitation of Yuan Shih-kai and Dr. Sun Yat-sen, but official decorum prevented him from doing this. Subsequently, according to the soothsayers, General Chow thought of a clever way in which he could be identified with the coin. Since he was generally known throughout the province as the "Motor Road Builder," he would have a coin designed depicting a motorcar, which would be identifiable with him. To be certain of this implication, the soothsayers claim that General Chow secretly instructed the designer of the coin to arrange the blades of grass beneath the car in such a manner as to spell out the Chinese characters for "Si Chen" (Hsi-ch'eng), which was the given name of Governor Chow.

These alleged actions of General Chow were totally unacceptable to the soothsayers and to many of the superstitious. It is claimed that the soothsayers predicted the general's death in a violent motorcar accident as "punishment for his pride and ostentation."⁶

I thought it would be interesting to try to determine if the hidden characters actually existed on the coin. I asked the Reverend Arthur B. Coole, a noted authority on Chinese coins, if he would comment on the problem. He graciously did so and presented a sketch, indicated here, of the pertinent part of the coin design with the following comments: "I have sketched where the two characters are supposed to be in the grass, according to one of my former Chinese coworkers in China, by tracing them in the grass in your picture. First of all, you have to turn the coin a quarter of the way around and then read top down. One has to have a stretch of the imagination to see them, but this is probably correct. The Chinese have often had secretive insignia and characters in their coins and currency."⁷

Therefore, the soothsayers' claim that the secretive initials are on the dollar may be correct. However, this does not necessarily substantiate their claim that General Chow actually wanted his own profile on the coin since, as Reverend Coole pointed out, the placing of secretive insignia on coins and currency was done quite often by the Chinese. (Incidentally, it is interesting to note that Reverend Coole also refers to an independent source for the story of the alleged secret insignia.)

Mintage Statistics

The lack of accurate mintage statistics for the Automobile Dollar may not be too surprising, considering that the coin was issued at a time when there was no centralized government effort in keeping an accurate control or record of the kind and amount of money minted. The various provincial governors, and other individuals, issued money at their own discretion and were not particularly interested in informing others of the kind and amount issued.

As to the number of Automobile Dollars issued, I have found no precise number recorded in the literature; that is, no quantity that is based on official mint records. However, an issue of about 50,000, as estimated by Kann,⁸ seems to be the best academic guess, and apparently was based on statistical studies. Berman⁹ mentions that 2000 pieces were issued, but gives no source for this information. It is of interest to note that Kann, in one of his earlier works,¹⁰ indicated that 3500 pieces were struck, but evidently he later obtained newer information which made him revise his estimate to 50,000.¹¹

The mint that struck the Automobile Dollar is somewhat of a puzzle also.

¹⁰"The History of Minting in China," China Journal, No. 5, 1939, p.32.

¹¹Arthur B. Coole, Private correspondence, Sept., 1964.

Apparently there was no mint in Kweichow when the Automobile Dollar was issued (1928, presumably) so the coin had to be struck in another province. Kann¹² states that it is "almost certain" that the coin was minted at the Chengtu mint in the province of Szechuan, since the floral crest on the obverse is identical to that on other Szechuan republic silver coins. Interestingly, in his 1939 work,¹³ Kann indicated that he did not know where the coin was minted. Reverend Coole commented on this change of mind by Kann as follows: "His (Kann's) change in ideas in those 15 years from not knowing where the coin actually was minted to placing it under the Chengtu mint is significant. M. Comencini, in his work, Coins of the Modern World 1870-1936 p. 85, says, 'In centre the mint mark of Choong-King in Szechuan Province.' Kann must have seen that remark before publishing his book and so on p. 261 he brings out the same point but credits the Chengtu instead of the Chunking mint with the job. I have found no native information as to which of these two mints did the job but the floral center piece of other Szechuan dollars (see pp. 86-86A of the 3rd edition of my book) is identical with the center piece of the Automobile Dollar giving credence to the place of minting. Maybe it was the Chengtu crest instead of the Chunking one."¹⁴

I have been unable to determine if all of the Automobile Dollar issue was placed in circulation. Judging from occasional ads and price trends, which sometimes list the Automobile Dollar in "unc." condition, some uncirculated pieces may exist. However, I have not seen pieces in grades better than very fine, or extremely fine at the best. This is in general agreement with the observation of Berman¹⁵ that all of the Automobile Dollars were put in circulation, mostly as gifts from the provincial governor, and that "very fine is the best grade in which the coins can be found." As Reverend Coole pointed out, ". . . in his experience, Chinese collectors generally were not interested in collecting uncirculated coins and most issues in China were put into circulation."¹⁶ Thus it appears that very few, if any, of the uncirculated Automobile Dollars were saved for posterity.

Also, I have found no literature source which gives the metallic composition of the Automobile Dollar. A few sources indicate the fineness qualitatively, but not quantitatively. For example, one article¹⁷ states that the coin had a standard silver content which was equivalent to the Chinese yuan. This would make the silver content about 89%, as the yuan of this general period (1920s) had a fineness of about this value.¹⁸ One staff member¹⁹ of the American Numismatic Society was of the opinion that the silver content was 90%, which is in approximate agreement with the above theory.

There is some indication, however, that the fineness might be a little lower than that of some of the other Chinese dollars. For example, in the work of Tsiang,²⁰ it is stated that "The color of the silver (i.e., silver content) is a bit on the weak side." In my opinion, the fineness is probably in the range of 890 to 900, with the value being closer to the lower figure. Probably the best way of determining the true composition of the coin would be by chemical analysis of at least two of the coins selected at random, but who would want to damage or destroy such a fascinating and expensive coin?²¹

Conclusion

From the results of this study it is concluded that relatively few real facts are known about the Automobile Dollar, and that much of what is known about the history and technology of the coin is speculative in nature, and inconclusive. On the basis of currently available information, it appears that: the Automobile Dollar was minted at the Chengtu mint in Szechuan Province with an issue of about 50,000; essentially all of the issue was put into circulation with very fine being the best grade generally available today; the silver fineness of the coin is in the range of 890 to 900.

To place these "most likely" answers into the realm of absolute facts will require much more research. More primary source materials are needed. Perhaps answers to many of the puzzling questions about the Automobile Dollar lie buried in some obscure Chinese mint record, bank record, or some hitherto unknown publication. The search for these answers is indeed an interesting and a challenging task, and this is what adds to the enjoyment of coin collecting!

Secretary's Office in Colorado Springs

As of June 1 the A.N.A. executive secretary's office was moved to Colorado Springs. All mail formerly sent to Phoenix, Ariz., should now be addressed to Acting Executive Secretary Jack R. Koch, or to the Association, P. O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, Colo. 80901.

The Pick-Congress Hotel Today

IT IS TRUE! The A.N.A. conventions in 1929, 1933 and 1956 were held in the Congress Hotel in Chicago. So, you're thinking, it must be an obsolete, decrepit, hoary place, completely inadequate for today's conventions of the American Numismatic Association. The Chicago Coin Club, host to the 75th anniversary convention in August, thinks otherwise and asks you to read the following.

The Pick-Congress, today one of the finest convention hotels in the Midwest, completed a multi-million dollar remodeling program of the entire property about a year ago. All guest rooms were completely remodeled, right from the basic foundation of each room and bath, to create attractive and comfortable settings. Each room is air-conditioned and has modern furniture and fixtures. The corridors, too, were completely remodeled "from scratch" with handsome wall coverings, carpeting and excellent lighting.

One of the most dramatic features of the program was the creation of new and refurbished meeting and function rooms on three floors, making the Pick-Congress unsurpassed in the Midwest for convention facilities. The totally new and magnificent Great Hall seats as many as 1,500 persons. Both the Great Hall and the hotel's historic Gold Room open into a large connecting reception foyer, known as The Rendezvous. When all three rooms are combined, gatherings up to 2,500 may be accommodated.

Richard Petersen, bourse chairman.

Decorated in terrazzo marble and fine fabrics, the Great Hall is lighted by 14 specially designed imported crystal chandeliers. Across the rear, above the suspended cantilevered balcony, is a 30-foot wide projection booth which serves as a press booth and contains facilities for both radio and television broadcasting. A special lighting system can provide up to seven different lighting effects, and the acoustics are excellent.

One of the largest and finest elevator consulting firms in America completed a $12,000 program to greatly improve the operating efficiency of the automatic elevators. Two additional elevators are now being installed and are expected to be in service by mid-August. Additional transportation to the function rooms, all located on the first, second and third floors, is provided by modern escalators capable of carrying 9,000 people an hour in either direction.

Another important phase of the remodeling program was the installation of a centrally located kitchen and bake shop, utilizing the most up-to-date, specialized equipment available. The hotel can prepare and serve banquets for as many as 3,000 people. For regular meals and between meal snacks, the Pompeian Room, Royal Scots Grill, the new Tipperary Inn Irish restaurant, Coffee House, Isle of Capri, and Tavern Tap are renowned for fine food and beverages with cordial service a tradition.

During our Diamond Anniversary convention, the first, second and third floors at the south end of the building will house the main activities. On the ground floor is the Avenue West Room, to be set in theater style the entire five days for business meetings, auction sessions and the educational forum. Adjacent to it the smaller Avenue East will be the hospitality room. Up the two-way escalator to the second floor are the Francis I Room for registration; the Great Hall and Rendezvous Room for the bourse; the magnificent Gold Room and the smaller Plaza and Belmont Rooms for exhibits, the invitational noncompetitive exhibits to be on the balcony of the Great Hall.

From this second floor, one may go up to the third floor by escalator (or by elevator from either first or second floor) to the security room, the balcony of the Great Hall, and to the Florentine Room and other smaller meeting rooms. The Saturday morning A.N.A. Club

Representatives' breakfast will be held in the Florentine Room, as will breakfasts, luncheons and dinners of several affiliated organizations. The grand finale, the Saturday evening banquet, will be held in the Great Hall which has a seating capacity of 1200 for dinner.

Yes, we are going back to the Congress Hotel for the fourth time for an A.N.A. convention. True, there are other hotels in Chicago which could handle our convention nicely, but the local committee feels that the Congress has one thing to make it the best place — a friendly and most cooperative staff, in addition to excellent facilities. The Chicago Coin Club wants you to attend, and believes you will like what you find August 16-20 in the Pick-Congress.

NUMISMATICS, PORTRAIT OF HISTORY

Air Force Technical Sergeant Rick Bronson and his wife, Virginia, have been appointed co-chairmen of National Coin Week for 1967. They are the first husband and wife team to serve the A.N.A. in this capacity, although Chairman Lois Otis of the past two years was assisted by her husband, Paul. Virginia was the first recipient of the A.N.A. Club Representative award in 1965, and Rick served as president of the Greeley (Colo.) Coin Club when it won first place in NCW Class A competition that same year. The Bronsons are moving this summer from Greeley to Kansas City, Mo., which will serve as headquarters for the 1967 Coin Week activity. Write to them anytime at P. O. Box 241, Grandview, Mo. 64030.

The theme selected for 1967 is "Numismatics, Portrait of History." Asked why this theme was chosen, Rick, who claims to be spokesman for the couple, commented: "No matter what numismatic items interest you most — coins, paper money, medals, tokens or odd and curious items used as money — they all convey the history of the people and the period that produced them. We would like to convince the public that most people collect coins, not for profit but because they are as historically and artistically valuable as fine paintings or sculpture. To my way of thinking, if a picture is worth a thousand words in telling the story of the human race, then a coin must easily be worth a million." You'll be hearing more about National Coin Week 1967 from the Bronsons soon.

From the President's Desk

It has been your president's pleasure to attend many excellent conventions and shows this spring, the latest at this writing being the Indiana State Numismatic Association convention in Evansville on May 13-15. The fine people there were certainly gracious hosts, and presented to me a beautiful plaque on which was engraved the late song title "They Loved Me In Evansville."

Matt H. Rotnert

From there I went to Washington, D.C., where S. W. Freeman met me for a tour of Capitol Hill. Among the offices we visited were those of Senator John McClellan and Congressman Wilbur Mills, who we thanked for their services to the A.N.A. in obtaining quick passage of our congressional medal bill. These men sponsored our charter bill in 1962 also, after others had expressed doubt that we could get it through Congress. We visited also with Senator William Fulbright, Congressman E. C. Gathings, Congressman Frank Evans and others. We called on L. L. Biddle of the National Foundation for the Arts and Humanities.

In the Treasury Department we saw Miss Eva Adams, Director of the Mint, and, while in her office, had the pleasure of speaking with her assistant, Fred Tate; also to Roger Reed and Kenneth Failor. We had a cordial but brief talk with Dr. Leland Howard in which we discussed gold coins of the world and the problems facing the collector and the Treasury Department. Counterfeiting was discussed also, and Dr. Howard expressed his concern over this important subject. Other offices in Washington were visited in the interests of the A.N.A. and collectors in general. Our First Vice President Arthur Sipe, as chairman of our commemorative medal committee, accompanied us in discussions concerning the production of our diamond anniversary medal.

From Washington I went to New York City where, arriving the evening of May 18, I attended the excellent formal banquet of the International Association of Professional Numismatists as a guest. A photograph elsewhere in this issue shows the international numismatic personages at the head table. Numismatists from all over the world attended this colorful affair.

On Friday morning, May 20, I was scheduled to attend two meetings being held at the same time in New York. This being impossible, Arthur Sipe represented the A.N.A. at the meeting of the Cancer Society and the Heart Fund. We were asked to appear in an advisory capacity to discuss means of distributing the silver dollars remaining in the Treasury Department, if they should be awarded by Congress to the above mentioned institutions. Our position was that these dollars should be distributed equitably to small collectors and individuals, and not allowed to get into the hands of hoarders or speculators, nor be sold in large quantities.

In the meantime, I was attending the meeting of the Permanent Commission Against Coin Forgery, held in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. This commission was formed in Paris in June 1965, after the first International Congress for the study of and the defense against coin forgery. This congress was called by Xavier Calico and convened at an I.A.P.N. meeting in Paris. The five members of the permanent commission are Messrs. X. Calico of Spain, E. Bourgey of France, M. Munoz of Mexico, P. O. Nordin of Sweden, and myself. At the May 20 meeting in New York, of which I was chairman, it was decided that this commission should be autonomous, and not a part of the I.A.P.N.; that we should meet at least once a year; and that we should have another world wide congress on forgeries within the next five years. (I would like to see this next one in the U.S.A.)

After one hour of closed meeting, we had an open meeting with a large number of numismatists present, S. W. Freeman included. We asked each one present to report any forgeries he might find to Secretary E. Bourgey, 7 rue Drouot, Paris (9^e), France, marked either "confidential" or "for publication." He will handle them accordingly, as we want to get as much publicity on the actual fraudulent coins as possible.

John Ford, Santa Maria and others in the audience made some timely suggestions to the commission. Publicity that will show up these forgers, who are trying to sell their false products, is one of the ways to stop them. Uniform laws and quick information to Interpol, whose headquarters are in Paris, will help also. We want A.N.A. members to be aware of this situation; to know that there are forgeries of gold coins, of silver coins, pieces of eight, and modern and colonial coins. So we hope to have more on this situation in The Numismatist in future issues. — MATT H. ROTHERT, President

HICKAM AFB TOKENS

Through the courtesy of Joseph R. Schick, A.N.A. 28650, we are able to illustrate here tokens which were in use at the Hickam Air Force Base, Honolulu, prior to 1964. His information about these tokens was furnished by the present director of the NCO Club at the base.

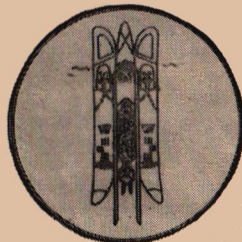

The pieces, seemingly of brass, were struck in Japan in denominations of 5, 10, 25 and 50 cents, and $1.00, corresponding very closely in diameter to the U. S. coins of these values. One side of each piece has the value in the center, as 5 CENTS, etc., or $1.00, with NCO OPEN MESS above and HICKAM AFB below. Two different designs were used on the other side, one on the 50 cents and $1.00, and the other on the three smaller pieces. As shown in the illus-

5 cents, 10,000 each. They were exchanged for coupons and retired on July 1, 1964, with the smallest quantity of any size on hand being 2,860 of the dollars. The present owner, who acquired the stock at auction in October, tration, the design on the smaller pieces is a shield, below which are the words PACIFIC AIR FORCE BASE COMMAND on a scroll. On the set used for illustration, the P in PACIFIC is clearly a P on the 5 cent and 25 cent pieces but is correct on the 10 cent piece.

According to Schick's information, the tokens were struck in the following quantities: $1.00 and 50 cents, 3,000 each; 25 cents, 8,000; and 10 cents and 1964, has disposed of approximately 900 sets. Southern Numismatic Supply, Jackson, Miss., has sets for sale to bona fide dealers only.

Members of the Silver Users Association use approximately 75 per cent of the silver consumed by the arts and industry in the United States. Consumption in 1965 was 140 million ounces, states the Association.

RICHARD STOCKTON MEDAL

Richard Stockton of New Jersey is the subject of the 16th medal in the Presidential Art Medals series of signers of the Declaration of Independence. The reverse depicts the Marquis de Lafayette on a scroll, but the signature at the bottom is that of Stockton and the dates are of his birth and death years. Sculptured by Ralph J. Menconi, the piece is available from Presidential Art, P. O. Box 187, Englewood, Ohio 45322, at $2.50 in bronze, $10 in silver (limited to 7500 issue).

EXCEPTIONAL SERVICE AWARD TO EVA ADAMS

Miss Eva B. Adams, r., beams her pleasure at receiving the Treasury Department's highest honor award from Under Secretary Joseph W. Barr. Representative Leonor K. Sullivan (D.Mo.) is on the left. Treasury Department Under Secretary Joseph W. Barr presented the Exceptional Service Award to Director of the Mint Eva B. Adams on May 19. Miss Adams is an Honorary Member of the American Numismatic Association and is known and highly regarded by many members. She has attended each of our annual conventions since becoming Director of the Mint and was a speaker on the Cleveland convention educational forum. The citation with her award reads as follows:

As Director of the United States Mint since October, 1961, Eva Adams has served in the highest traditions of public service. Her participation in top policy formulation has combined her own wide-ranging judgment with the Mint's technical know-how. When final policy decisions have been reached, she has translated them into effective and efficient action which has protected the nation from severe coin shortages.

The success of the Mint in overcoming persistent coin shortages has resulted also from her exemplary relations with Congress. By keeping that body fully informed as to the Mint's plans and problems, there has resulted an executive-legislative cooperation making possible these accomplishments.

Soon after becoming Director of the Mint, Eva Adams worked closely with a private management consultant firm — the Arthur D. Little Company — to survey the nation's coinage needs and the Mint's facilities for dealing with them. Out of this survey came legislation for the construction of new and up-to-date mint facilities in Philadelphia, Penna.

When coin shortages threatened in 1963, she put the Mint on a 24-hour schedule to meet the demand. In 1964 she overcame another shortage by inaugurating a crash program to double the production of coins. Her work in cooperation with other Treasury officials and a private consulting firm — the Battelle Memorial Institute — resulted in the President's recommendation of legislation leading to the enactment of the Coinage Act of 1965, providing new coinage materials to conserve the nation's dwindling supplies of silver. She then launched the production of the new, intricately designed coins in quantities sufficient to forestall a coin crisis in 1965.

These accomplishments are a tribute to the ability of Eva Adams to provide the Secretary of the Treasury with the basis for sound policy determinations, to furnish Congress with information needed to take appropriate action, to maintain the high morale of mint employees encouraging record-breaking production, and to administer new programs in an efficient manner.

Book Reviews

The U. S. Mint and Coinage – An Illustrated History from 1776 to the Present by Don Taxay, 1966, Arco Publishing Co., New York City, board covers, 412 pp., illus., $12.50.

Don Taxay is well known as a numismatist; with the publication of this long overdue detailed tome on the U. S. mint and coinage he has earned a new title: iconoclast. The beautiful stories we have learned about the founding of our mint and system of coinage are forever shattered. Now we have the documented facts which show the gropings of upright men, the vacillations of the early Congresses, and the chicanery of both private persons and public officials – all of which go to make up the real history of the mint and its products.

Some of the incidents related are amusing, at least in the light of retrospection. In most cases they clearly bring to attention the absence of a fixed plan for so essential a thing as our national coinage. Numerous facts and events are presented which help us to understand many things regarding our money and monetary history which, heretofore, we knew vaguely but did not fully understand or appreciate.

What Taxay did, apparently, was to amass primary information, in the form of official records, private correspondence and contemporary publications, and then fit it all together with the necessary interpretations and comments to make a meaningful record. While the book makes interesting reading, it is not light. It contains many names, relatively few of which are well known, and dates; both of which are essential but require thoughtful reading and concentration. And footnote references are abundant.

The book offers much to commend and little to criticize. Certainly it brings to an end some of the nostalgic beliefs we have come to hold, mostly without any real foundation, but the serious collector, numismatist and student of our country's history should want to know the true story. Taxay has presented it. The book is divided into four parts, containing thirty-two chapters, and is well indexed to facilitate its use as the encyclopedic reference that it is. — GLENN S.

Viking Coins of the Danelaw and of Dublin by Michael Dolley, the British Museum, London, 1965. 32 pp., 16 plates, 1 map, card cover, $1.00. (Obtainable from British Information Service, 845 Third Ave., New York, N. Y. 10022.)

This short monograph reviews in a terse but critical manner the coinages issued by Viking invaders of the British Isles from the 10th to 12th centuries, an area slighted for the most part in the standard works. Compressed into just 32 pages are an introduction, notations on the sources (hoards, etc.) of the British Museum collection, comments on the Anglo-Danish issues of the 9th century as well as the Anglo-Danish and Anglo-Norse coinages of the early 10th century. The Anglo-Norse series of York (939-954) is discussed, followed by a commentary on the Hiberno-Norse issues of Dublin (circa. 995 to circa. 1135). The author concludes with suggestions for additional reading.

Fifty-three coins, pence and half-pence, are illustrated in the plates. The bulk of the photographs are clear and the types and descriptions readily deciphered. The author makes several excellent points in his text, such as stressing "Danish" and "Norse" issues. The booklet is a must purchase for any collector interested in the early English coinages. It is not exactly for beginners since Mr. Dolley assumes that the reader possesses a certain amount of knowledge regarding Saxon coinages but, in light of the price, it is a rare bargain when the amount of data compressed into 32 pages is considered. Few individuals have the skill to write so clearly and yet briefly on such a difficult subject.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. D. DEE DENISE

A.N.A. LM 265

My thoughts are of a fine woman whose young son had become interested in coin collecting, so she took him to a Seattle Coin Club meeting. It must have been in 1946 or '47 because the club met at the YMCA during those years.

The little boy's interest in the hobby was short-lived but his mother's grew and grew; and so did the friendship between her family and ours. It was a wonderful, heartwarming time. Why, when we wanted more than anything to attend the A.N.A. convention in Boston in 1948, but could not run off leaving cows and five pre-teenage children for twelve days. She and her family of five spent their "vacation" on the farm and pretended to enjoy it.

Sunday, April 24, 1966, Gene DeNise (Mrs. D. Dee) slipped away after illness and surgery in a Seattle hospital.

During the 50s, Mrs. DeNise was librarian for the American Numismatic Association, of which she had become a member in 1946. The family moved several times searching for a house large enough to hold all the books. She greatly enjoyed this library work, not only because she was fascinated by the research required to answer questions regarding coins and the general care and distribution of books but because of the contact she had with persons all over the world who were interested in the same hobby. She personally added books to the library which she felt were necessary but beyond the allotted budget. She voluntarily wrote the "Convention Highlights" in 1954, '55 and '56 for publication in The Numismatist. Her hospitality toward numismatists was boundless.

She collected any coins which interested her but was especially attracted to Condor Tokens and Communion Tokens, of which she owned outstanding collections. She was an avid collector of Orders and Decorations and had many beautiful ones. Later she became an enthusiastic "rock" hunter and fisherman, and was interested in antique glass.

To all her loves — her family, her church, her friends, her hobbies — she gave her best. During the same period when she was A.N.A. librarian, she was secretary of the Seattle Coin Club and the Pacific Northwest Numismatic Association, and a member of the California State Numismatic Association and many local clubs.

To lose one who gave of herself as did Gene could leave a deep void; but to those who knew her there is that glow of well-being which comes from having had a real friend. — HAVEN PETERSEN, A.N.A. 15369

Since the first pure nickel coin was minted over 80 years ago, 45 countries have used this metal for more than 150 types of coins.

Notes & Queries

Stops 1965 Mint Set Orders

Director of the Mint Miss Eva Adams announced on May 25 that no more orders for 1965 special mint sets would be accepted after June 15, 1966. She stated that the cutoff might come even earlier, depending on the number of orders received and the ability of the mint to fill them. The Assay Office at San Francisco began in mid-May to mail the 1965 sets to collectors who ordered them earlier this year. They are being sent by first-class registered mail under special arrangements made for the first time this year with the Post Office Department.

Canadian 1967 Mint Sets

A release dated May 6 by the Office of the Canadian Minister of Finance described the 1967 coins which will commemorate the Canadian centennial year. In addition to the six normal denominations, one cent to one dollar, the special 1967 set will contain a gold $20 coin, and the price of the set is $40. Of particular interest to collectors in the United States is the following quotation from the official release.

"In view of the restrictions under the laws of the United States and the United Kingdom, which prohibit the importation of gold coins of this nature, the Mint will not accept orders from persons in these countries. Following its past practice, the Mint will sell in 1967 numismatic sets of uncirculated coin containing one each of the six normal denominations from one cent to one dollar bearing the new Centennial designs. A further announcement will be made later regarding the sale of these sets and the dates for applications."

Zoo Coins

What appears to be a worthy numismatic project has been brought to our attention by the International Numismatic Society of San Diego. In observance of its 50th anniversary, the famed San Diego Zoo will dedicate in December the Elmer C. Otto educational center. The Society is forming a collection of coins depicting animals to be exhibited in the new center. The Society's monthly publication, Intercoin, states that all donors' names will appear in the exhibit and will be published in Intercoin. Animal coins, or other collector coins that may be traded for needed pieces, may be forwarded to Editor Ken Hedges, 9585 Lamar St., Spring Valley, Calif. 92077, designated for use in the San Diego Zoo collection.

One Wooden Pelican

Exactly one year ago, on page 1103, the Baton Rouge Coin Club's wooden piece called "one pelican" for 1965 was illustrated. A similar piece, imprinted with an orange color ink, has been issued for the Club's May 29 festival this year and a few of the issue were reserved for collectors of wooden "coins" outside the Club. They are available at 25¢ each sent with a stamped and addressed envelope to T. C. Atkinson, P. O. Box 2383, Baton Rouge, La. 70821, who is the Club president.

Robbers Apprehended, Freed

The story of the attempted daylight robbery of the home of an Idaho man and his wife has a different than usual outcome, but not necessarily a "happy ending." The would-be robbers were caught but subsequently released on bonds of only $4,000 each and, after five months, have not been brought to trial.

The collectors, both members of A.N.A., learned through a tip to local law enforcement officers that their coin collection was to be stolen. In spite of the fact that they had taken precautions to secrete their collection, that only a handful of "friends" knew of its whereabouts, and that the only time they had exhibited extensively was two years ago, the robbers-to-be had detailed information on the exact location of the hidden home safe, the value of the collection, and the amount of insurance carried on it.

With the owner's cooperation, the law officers "staked out" the home and, after a three-day wait, two men jimmied a door (it took only a few seconds) the afternoon of December 23 last. Confronted with shotguns, the men fled but were soon captured, as was a third man who remained outside in a car to report by walkie-talkie to his accomplices. Initially bond was set at $10,000 each and the men remained in custody. Through friendly and influential connections, the bonds were reduced to $4,000 each and posted by a bank in a town on the outskirts of Reno, and the "robbers" were given their liberty. At this writing, trial is set for June 18 but there is good reason to believe that further delays will be granted.

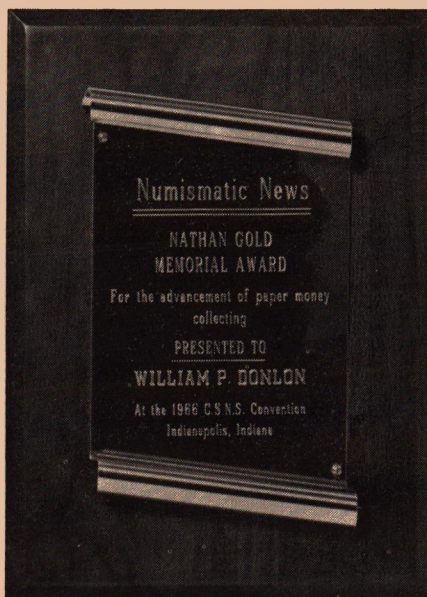

The victim, who says he is little more than a generation removed from the posse and necktie-party which controlled the claim-jumper, train-robber, cattle-rustler, horse-thief and rapist in the old West, feels that it is perhaps unfortunate that the robbers surrendered without a shot being fired. He still has his collection, but the insurance company cancelled his policy, and he has the uneasy feeling that he may be visited again. After all, the three-man gang is at liberty, and his name and collection have been publicized in the local newspaper.

Donlon Receives Award

The 1966 Nathan Gold Memorial Award was presented at the Central States Numismatic Society in Indianapolis to William P. Donlon of Utica, N. Y. In the form of a plaque, the award is sponsored by Numismatic News and is presented to the person who, in the opinion of the editorial staff, has contributed most to the advancement of paper money collecting during the previous calendar year.

Donlon, a specialist in small size notes, was recognized for his book A Price Catalog of United States Small Size Paper Money. He devised the simplified numbering system and relied on his vast experience and knowledge as a professional numismatist in preparing the text. Published by Hewitt Brothers, the book is a valuable reference for the collector as well as being a price valuation guide.

The award was established in 1961 to help perpetuate the aims and collecting ideals of the late Nathan Gold, one of the country's foremost pioneers in currency research. The previous awards have been made to Fred Marckhoff, James Kirkwood, (both deceased) Arlie Slabaugh, Matt H. Rothert, and Grover C. Criswell, listed in order of the years of their awards.

Urges Introspection

Dear Editor:

An item at the bottom of page 572 in the May issue stated that a member resigned because he had done nothing for the A.N.A. and it had done nothing for collectors. I wonder if a great number of us should not take a long look at our relationship with our hobby and the A.N.A.! I feel that I have received a great deal of good and a great deal of service from the Association, but am not sure that I have given anything in return. I use the library, our club uses the A.N.A. slides, and The Numismatist is always welcome in the mail.

Any organization can be strong only if all concerned do their part. We hear a lot today about what is wrong with the hobby, but many of us will not take the time to see if there is something we could do to improve it. We can remove some of the mistaken ideas some people have of coin collecting by speaking out about our hobby. Make talks and display before clubs and other groups. It is amazing the amount of goodwill and understanding that can be established. I have talked before civic clubs in our city and have always been asked back. Strangers to the hobby enjoy learning why the eagle or a motto appears on our coins, and many other facts about our money. Their minds can be changed about collectors being "silver hoarders," but, of course, we should be sure we know the difference ourselves.

I hope never to resign because I have done nothing for our organization and because I feel it has done nothing for me. I think first we have to prove to ourselves which group we belong in, and then be of service to you and our organization as well as to our hobby in general. — LEE GOULD, A.N.A. 43562

New Catalogs and Price Lists

Central Coin Mart, 112 S. Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill. 60603, has a reprint of an 1898 catalog of "Badges, Buttons, Etc." issued for the presidential election of that year. The booklet was published originally by the American News Company, New York, and shows the "retail" and "trade" prices of the items at the time. One item, picked at random, promoted "W. McKinley / Protection / Sound Money," and was priced at 10¢ retail, 50¢ per dozen to the trade. Mart owner Leonard W. Stark says it lists all political items of that campaign of which he is aware, and some he has never seen. Reprint priced at $2.00, or $1.50 to members of American Political Items Collectors.

Aubrey and Adeline Bebee have issued their annual catalog of supplies for collectors. Its 108 pages offer a wide variety of items—probably the most available from any coin dealer anywhere. Albums and pages, folders, plastic and other holders for individual coins or sets, tubes, carrying cases, magnifiers (50¢ to $36 each), cleaners, paper money holders and albums, etc. But the big item is numismatic books, of which more than 400 titles are listed at prices ranging from 50¢ to $50. Send $1.00 to Bebee's, 4514 N. 30th St., Omaha, Nebr. 68111. The price is deductible from the first order of $25 or more.

Paramount International Coin Corp. announced recently the release of its price list no. 1 in a planned series containing numismatic information and lists of coins for sale. While it features coins of England (1797 "cartwheel" penny, $9), including a few in gold (1746 choice five guineas, $1400), there are also some choice U. S. coins priced at $50 up. The list is available at $1.00 (refunded with any purchase of $10 or more) from Paramount, Catalog Dept., 5055 N. Main St., Dayton, Ohio 45415.

Two price lists of world coins have been issued by Jolie Coins, Roslyn Heights, N. Y. 11577 and are available free upon request. The first list includes countries from Afghanistan to India native states to Hyderabad, the second from India native state Jaipur to Zanzibar. Coins listed are mostly of the 20th century and rather few are crown size. Later the firm expects to offer the States of Jersey proof coins to be issued this year at a price not stated in the announcement.

Convention Personalities

Shown at the April 29-May 1 Central States Numismatic Association convention in Indianapolis are, l. to r., Leo G. Terry, retiring president of the Society; Carl W. Simons, Jr., president of Indianapolis Coin Club and co-chairman with Terry of the convention; Matt H. Rothert, A.N.A. president and a speaker on the educational program; and Miss Helen B. Rhodes, historian of the U.S. Army Finance Corps and curator of its museum, a speaker at the educational program. (U.S. Army photo.)

Appoints Medal Curator

When Adm. Oscar H. Dodson retired as director of the Money Museum, National Bank of Detroit, he resigned his position as A.N.A. curator of medals. The office remained vacant, with Charles R. Hoskins having custody of the medals, until the board voted in May to appoint Hoskins, acting director of the Money Museum, to be curator of A.N.A. medals.

Hoskins, A.N.A. member 34115, is well known through his association with the Money Museum, as moderator of the past two A.N.A. convention educational forums, and as past secretary of the Detroit Coin Club. With his wife and 4-year-old daughter, he resides in Grosse Pointe Woods, Mich.

A.N.A. Auction Catalog

Auctioneer Abe Kosoff reminds members that the catalog of the 1966 convention auction sale will not be sent automatically to all. Unless an A.N.A. member's name is on the regular mailing list of either A. Kosoff, Inc. or Numismatic Enterprises, it will be necessary for him to request a catalog if he wants one. It is expected to be ready about July 10 and will be sent without charge to any A.N.A. member who requests it of A. Kosoff, Inc., P. O. Box 456, Encino, Calif. 91316, or of Numismatic Enterprises, 6308 Woodman Ave., Van Nuys, Calif. 91401.

New Kennedy Medal

Mark International of New York City has announced the release of a new medal in memory of the late President Kennedy. Its issuance coincides with the high interest of collectors in Kennediana generated by the publication of a standard reference book on the subject by Edward C. Rochette, author of Medallic Portraits of John F. Kennedy. Collectors will have but a short time, according to the distributor, to obtain this limited issue medal. Struck in pure silver, 30 mm. in size, it bears a portrait of the late President on the obverse.

The strikingly symbolic reverse shows the Statue of Liberty, superimposed over a map of the United States, with a scroll bearing the proud legend LIBERTY TO ALL. Fifty stars ring the central design and the legend identifies the series — PRESIDENTS OF THE UNITED STATES. The edges are reeded as on a coin. Collectors may, for a limited time, order specimens direct from the importer, Mark International Inc., 521 Fifth Ave., New York, N.Y. 10017, at $5.95 each, including postage and handling.

New Numismatic Publication

Collectors of coins and paper money of the modern State of Israel, as well as students of ancient Jewish coins and history, will find much of interest and help in the Journal of Israel Numismatics if future issues may be judged from nos. 1 and 2 of vol. 1. Published bi-monthly for The International Israel Numismatic Society, Inc., it is edited by Fred Bertram with Jerry Yahalom as associate editor and Yaakov Meshorer, numismatic advisor to The Israel Museum, as editorial consultant.

The first two issues, dated February-March and April-May, 1966, consist of 32 pages each, a little smaller dimensions than The Numismatist. Without any waste of space, the clear type and high quality illustrations are printed on a very good grade of paper. These two issues contain articles relative to the coins, medals, paper money and history of Israel; to which is added a few brief news items and announcements, with practically no advertising.

Perhaps two sentences on the editorial page of the first issue sum up very clearly and tersely what can be expected in the Journal: "... this is a journal with a purpose to add to the knowledge, and thus the pleasure, of anyone interested in the money of the 'land of Israel.' The phrase 'land of Israel' is used because the journal's range of subjects will be geographical only, without chronological limitations."

The subscription price is $5 per year in the United States, $6 in Canada and other countries. Subscribers during 1966 are to receive all six 1966 issues. Address: Journal of Israel Numismatics, P. O. Box 34, Cliffside Park, N. J. 07010.

Double Struck Crown

Although it is not the policy of The Numismatist to publicize misstruck coins, this one seems unusual enough to merit attention. The illustration shows clearly two impressions of the die, with a slight movement of the planchet between the first and second strikes. A photo of a portion of the edge not shown here, indicates the effect of the planchet's movement. It would appear that the planchet was not entirely seated in the collar when one strike was made. The photos were submitted by Allen R. Greenwald, P. O. Box 374, Midtown Sta., New York, N. Y. 10018.

Another Schweitzer Medal

A. A. Freiwah, Forstenrieder Allee 4/IV, Munich 49, Germany, sent the new Albert Schweitzer medal, illustrated here in approximately actual size, as a donation to the A.N.A. headquarters fund. It was struck in the Bavarian State Mint, reports Freiwah, in pure silver and is available in 40 mm. diameter size at $7.00. He mentions also that 1000 sets of 40, 50 and 60 mm. pieces were struck with numbered edges at $70 per set.

In addition, member Freiwah contributed one of the brilliant proof fine silver medals issued by Nummis-Mundi to commemorate the March 10 marriage of Princess Beatrix of the Netherlands and Claus von Amsberg. On the obverse are their conjugated busts in profile with the shields of the Netherlands and of Claus's castle in Amsberg below. The reverse has a center design of crests within a circle surrounded by RES AETERNA SIGNUM SALUTIS NUMMIS MUNDI. Priced at $6.00 in 34 mm. size, 10,000 of these pieces are said to have been issued.

vidual to apply for membership was accepted. The applicant, Charles Burger, is a resident of Paw Paw, Mich., and has been collecting coins since 1909, favoring U. S. gold issues. He is a graduate of Western Michigan University and has attended Michigan coin shows and conventions for many years.

The Michigan State Numismatic Society was founded in November of 1956 and at present has a membership of 1100 individuals and clubs. The ten year anniversary of the group will be observed at the fall convention to be held in Detroit during November. Anyone wishing to become a member is asked to contact Secretary Harriet J. Nordhof, 300 W. 27th St., Holland, Mich. 49423.

Anti-Inflationist

The following is the essence of an open letter to all A.N.A. members via the editor. It was on the writer's letterhead which indicates that he is a dealer in U. S. coins. It is an expression of the writer's views and not necessarily those of the editor or officers of the Association.

Dear Editor:

My honest opinion is that our coin hobby is plain sick! It has not been normal, price-wise, for at least five years. Most coin prices, especially those dated after 1890, have ballooned too high too fast and are utterly unrealistic.

My first humble suggestion to make an honest start to restore normalcy would be that A.N.A. adopt officially and persuade — yes, even force if necessary — all members, especially those who are dealers and auctioneers, to set 1963 "Red Book" prices as official for 1967 and start over from there. Adjustments in future prices should be made at a normal pace without sudden skyrocketing to phony inflated levels for the sole benefit of "get-rich-quick" operators who have no regard for the future of the hobby. As a 25-year member of A.N.A., I humbly recommend adoption, by a vote of all members, of the following principles and rules:

1) Revert to and adopt 1963 "Red Book" prices as official values of coins for 1967;

2) Make the "Red Book" or some other catalog showing these prices as official, and have it carry the A.N.A. insignia on the cover or on the inside title page;

3) Select a group of about 25 honest A.N.A. members as a committee to make price adjustments once every 5 years, their names to be printed in the catalog as contributors;

4) Make it a rule that all members who are auctioneers, catalogers or advertisers must use the official prices as standard, and forbid the use of such terms as "worth more than catalog price," etc.

I say let the bidder (or buyer) decide how much any coin is worth to him.

Respectfully submitted,
PETER J. FRANKUS, A.N.A. 8318

Heart of Dixie Convention

It's July 20-23 for the fun-filled, knowledge packed, sixth annual Alabama Numismatic Society convention at the Thomas Jefferson Hotel in Birmingham. From the Hon. George Wallace, Governor of Alabama who issued a proclamation designating July 17-23 as "Coin Collectors Week in Alabama," from Mayor Albert Boutwell of Birmingham, and from Dr. Fred Downing, president of Alabama Numismatic Society, the word comes down that the red carpet is to roll out with a special invitation to members and guests, "Y'all Come."

Wednesday evening, July 20, there will be an educational panel program of unusual enjoyment and merit, at which Alabama is honored and delighted to present a panel composed of: Matt H. Rothert, president of A.N.A., noted author and lecturer and renowned numismatist, who will share with us "The History of A.N.A." and the exciting plans for its Diamond Jubilee; Mrs. Margo Russell, executive editor of Coin World, numismatist extraordinary, whose topic "The Golden Age of Numismatics" will inspire and reward each listener; and S. W. Freeman, advertising manager of The Numismatist and often A.N.A. liaison to Congress, who will reminisce with us about "Obsolete Coinage of the United States." Following this memorable program the Birmingham Coin Club, acting as host for the convention, will entertain with an informal reception and social hour honoring out of town guests.

At 10 o'clock Thursday morning 50 bourse tables, with dealers from 16 states, will offer to the public outstanding collections of monies and numismatic memorabilia. From 7:30 to 8:30 Thursday evening Matt Rothert, who will be featured earlier on a favorite television show, will give an illustrated lecture on "United States Fractional Currency." His outstanding collection and fascinating book on this subject are well known to collectors. Friday afternoon from 3:00 to 4:00 o'clock, a special program for collectors, new, young and old, will be given by Dr. Walter B. Jones, founder and a past president of the Society.

Many fabulous exhibits, including the renowned Alabama Bankers' collection, sponsored by the First National Bank of Birmingham, will be on display from Thursday morning through Saturday afternoon. All members are invited to exhibit either competitively or non-competitively.

Marvin Acton, a Birmingham dealer, will conduct an auction Saturday, starting at 1:30 p.m. The awards banquet Saturday evening will be great. It will begin with a souvenir laden dinner of delightful food, tastefully served and hot. Following the dinner hour we will be privileged to hear the Hon. Calvin Johnson, former congressman from Illinois, deliver one of the most inspiring messages in America today. When you hear him speak on the subject "Opportunities Unlimited," you will know why he ranks as one of our country's top five speakers.

Immediately following this address, exhibit awards of first, second and third place in six categories will be presented to the winners. New Society officers will be installed by A.N.A. President Matt Rothert.

Convention chairman for this event is Mrs. Purnie Moore, P. O. Box 3601, West End Sta., Birmingham, Ala. 35211. Assisting her are Marvin Acton, co-chairman, Hubert Norris, Jr., bourse chairman, and E. R. Skelton, exhibit chairman.

Topical Coin Collectors

Anyone really interested in collecting coins topically, like "Animals on Coins," "Ships on Coins," "Flowers and Plants on Coins," "Coins on Stamps," or any of the other hundreds of possible subjects is invited to join the Association of Topical Coin Collectors (ATCC). This new organization's purpose is to enable its members to share information and exchange coins with other members who are specializing in topical coin collecting. They will be aided by persons who have devoted many years to those subjects.

Charter membership in ATCC is open to anyone actively interested in topicals. Members will receive lists of coin groups collected by associates; names and addresses of members, along with their specialized topics; and news on new coinage in each particular field of interest. Details about the organization and charter membership applications can be obtained from Executive Secretary George Rony, 6770 Hollywood Blvd., Hollywood, Calif. 90028. The fee is $3 for the remainder of the year 1966 and includes a certificate of charter membership.

The date will be 1966, the weight, design, size and metal will be identical with the current coins (1958) in circulation. The coins were struck at the Vereinigte Deutsche Metallwerke A. G. HALL OF FAME MEDAL

The 33rd in the series of Hall of Fame medals honors Sylvanus Thayer, enshrined in the Hall in Memorial Library of New York University on its Bronx campus. Thayer, the "Father of the Military Academy" at West Point, was elected to the Hall in recognition of his achievements as the founder of technical education in this country. Both the bust and the medal were created by sculptor Joseph Kiselewski, and the medal was produced by the Medallist Art Co. in 1 3/4 inch silver and bronze pieces and in 3 inch bronze. The reverse depicts a figure, as in a classroom, with mathematical diagrams and teaching aids surrounding him. The Coin and Currency Institute is distributing the medal through department store coin sections, with royalties going to the Hall of Fame.

Press Time Briefs

FINAL WARNING! It now appears certain that all guest rooms in the Pick-Congress Hotel will be reserved for August 17, 18 and 19 by the end of July. Probably certain kinds and rates will be filled even sooner. If you plan to attend the Diamond Anniversary convention August 16-20, and want to stay in the convention hotel, make your reservation without delay. Write to Gen. Chm. Harry X Boosel, P. O. Box 132 Northtown, Chicago, Ill. 60645 for a hotel rate-reservation card, fill it out and return it to the Pick-Congress Hotel promptly. Be sure to state that you will be attending the A.N.A. convention as the hotel is not confirming other reservations for that week.

PROGRESS is being made on the A.N.A. Diamond Anniversary medal which was approved by the Congress. General designs have been decided upon and work is being started on the models from which the Philadelphia Mint will make the dies for striking the medals. At this moment we have two hopes: that photographs of the models will be available in time for illustration in the next issue of The Numismatist, and that the medals themselves will be available to members at the August convention. Of course, they may be purchased by mail also after the convention. Congress authorized the striking of up to 50,000 pieces.

ADVANCE registrations for the convention are coming in fast, reports Marty Greene. This practice was started several years ago and each year more members take advantage of it. You can now look the program over and decide on just what you want. Drop a line to Marty Greene, P. O. Box 41, Northbrook, Ill. 60062, requesting an advance registration card (one for each person). You'll get it promptly, can check off the things you want and mail it back to Marty with your check. When you arrive, it will take only a minute to pick up your package without any loss of time.

Numismatic Vignettes

■ In a frank talk at the 1964 annual meeting of the Numismatic Society of South Australia, its stellar member, J. Hunt Deacon, asked members: "Have you decided what you are? Have you thought of what you could become? Are you a numismatologist, numismatist, a serious coin collector, a player with the study, an accumulator, speculator, dealer, dealing collector, collecting dealer, or an exchange only collector? The latter is a polite way of saying a dealer, for the person who collects for exchange only, although he might never see the results of his acquisitions, knows that to whom he leaves his collection will go the benefit of his buying at the right time and place. All these people, with their various approaches, are important to the science, but their importance rests upon themselves."

■ Even the machines are stealing coins! Wanting a cup of coffee, I approached a vender and read the instructions carefully. Setting the indicator on "black" and noting that it would take nickels, dimes or quarters, I deposited a (silver) quarter. Two things happened: some coins dropped into the "change" box and a previously unnoticed button lighted up to say "no quarters."

That was all — no coffee. And the change box yielded only 3 nickels. Still wanting coffee, I inserted 2 of the nickels. It was good coffee, and very hot. But what became of my dime? Was the machine saving up for, perhaps, a new heating element? Did it sneak a cup of coffee for itself after I left? Or had it been watching humans long enough to learn a few of their tricks? I guess you really can't trust anybody or anything anymore.

■ In Jack Ogilvie's "The A.N.A. and Its Presidents" in the June issue, this statement appeared: "National prosperity plus an effective advertising campaign by the Chicago Coin Club pushed the registration of members at the 1929 convention above the hundred mark for the first time in A.N.A. history. Three hundred visitors attended and M. H. Bolender, widely known sales cataloger, conducted an auction." This was the first cataloged auction to be held at an A.N.A. convention, I understand.

The 1956 convention in Chicago, 27 years later, was the first at which registration reached the thousand mark, although by this time no distinction was being made between members and visitors so far as registration was concerned. Will this year, the Association's 75th anniversary, see a new record attendance? Preparations are based on 4,000 badge registrations.

■ Many a man who wouldn't think of gambling with dice, cards or at the race track will not hesitate to order "rare" coins at bargain prices from an advertiser about whom he knows nothing whatsoever!

■ What's new? "Thieves steal rare jewelry and coins, estimated to be worth $30,000, from the Art Institute." Chicago History, Chicago Historical Society, quoted from a Dec. 11, 1915 Chicago newspaper.

■ Most of us are familiar with the word "lithograph," but what do we know about it? First, the word is a combination of two Greek words: "litho," meaning stone, and "graph" for write or draw — hence "stone writing."

Discovery of the process of writing on stone with oily ink or grease crayon and printing therefrom is credited to Herr Alois Senefelder, a German born in Munich. That was in 1798; about 75 years later metal plates began to be used in place of stones, the latter going out of use altogether in the early 20th century. With photography involved, the process is still in use but the ink is transferred from the plate to a rubber blanket and thence to the paper, thus giving rise to the term "offset" printing. — GLENN S.

SOUTHERN COMMEMORATIVE SOCIETY

With a current membership of about 400 and a limit of 1,000, the Southern Commemorative Society issues a pure silver medal each month to honor a Southern hero, event or institution. The medals are 1½ inches in diameter and are serially numbered. Organized on a nonprofit basis, the membership fee is $10 and the medals are currently priced at $7.75, but are expected to be about $6.00 each when the membership reaches the 1,000 limit.

The sixth medal honors Jefferson Davis, designer Kurt Lang having modeled it after a marble statue owned by the State of Virginia. The reverse depicts the Capitol Building at Montgomery, Ala., often called the "Cradle of the Confederacy."

Those who join the Society now will begin their memberships with the 9th medal, Stonewall Jackson, but when the quota is filled, reports the Society's director, the previously struck medals will be available to them at the regular price. Information may be obtained about the Society from Director William W. Travis, Alabaster, Ala. 35007.

ILLINOIS STATEHOOD MEDAL

Adlai E. Stevenson, former Governor of Illinois and U. S. Ambassador to the United Nations, is honored of the Presidential Art 17th statehood series issue. Ralph J. Menconi created the distinctive portrait of Stevenson for one side and the seal of Illinois on the other. Illinois was admitted to the Union as the 21st state in 1818 and the seal was cut in its present form in 1868, the dates shown below the eagle. Presidential Art Medals, P. O. Box 187, Englewood, Ohio 45322, can supply the medal in bronze, silver and platinum. See its advertisement regularly in THE NUMISMATIST.

A.N.A. HEADQUARTERS FLOOR PLAN

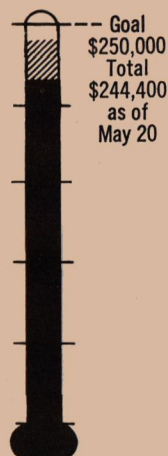

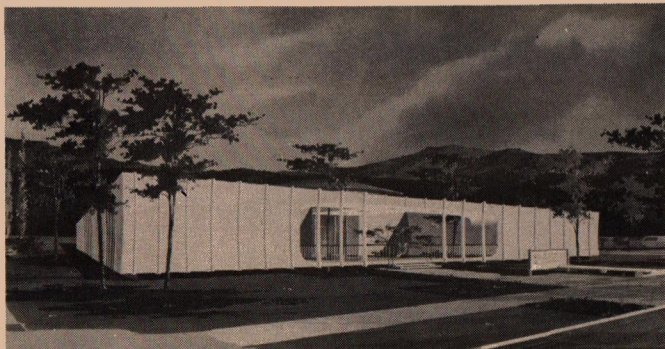

After long study and deliberation with various officers and members, and consultation with architect Carlisle B. Guy of Colorado Springs, the board of governors have adopted the floor plan shown here for the home and headquarters to be constructed in Colorado Springs. In announcing the board's decision, President Rothert made clear that the plan is final and that working drawings and bids for the construction are proceeding on this basis.

The entire ground floor shown contains about 8200 square feet within the building, under which will be a basement area of about 7500 square feet. This will not be partitioned and allocated at first but may be used as necessary when and as needed, except for the small space occupied for heating and other building equipment. It is believed that the proposed building can be constructed at a cost of approximately $200,000, and plans call for work to be started late in the summer. The next step, after working drawings are completed, is to secure bids for actual construction, analyze them and let a contract. See page 591 of the May issue for other information and a view of the outside of the building.

- ▶ Provide for the establishment of a national numismatic museum;
- ▶ Be a symbol of the importance of the collecting and study of money from the dawn of civilization to the present and tomorrow;
- ▶ Afford every member an opportunity to have a tangible part in the A.N.A. for its betterment and the advancement and enjoyment of numismatics on a nationwide scale.

Code of Ethics

American Numismatic Association

Membership in the American Numismatic Association is a privilege extended to those persons and organizations deemed worthy thereof and is not a matter of right. Such membership can be maintained only until the board of governors determines that the conduct of a member has been such that, in the best interest of the Association, his membership should be terminated.

For the guidance of its members, this Code of Ethics has been duly adopted by the board of governors under the authority vested in it by the Federal Charter and the bylaws of the Association. A breach thereof by any member reflects, directly or indirectly, upon all other members. Such a breach shall be considered conduct prejudicial to the welfare of the Association and cause for action by the board of governors.

As a member of the American Numismatic Association,

I agree to support and be governed by the Federal Charter and the bylaws of the Association; and by such rules, policies and regulations as may be in force from time to time;

I agree to conduct myself so as to bring no reproach or discredit to the Association, or impair the prestige of membership therein;

I agree to base all of my dealings on the highest plane of justice, fairness and morality;

I agree to neither buy nor sell numismatic items of which the ownership is questionable;

I agree to conform to the accepted standards of dignified advertising;

I agree to take immediate steps to correct any error I may make in any transaction;

I agree not to sell, exhibit, produce nor advertise counterfeits, copies, restrikes and reproductions of any numismatic items if their nature is not clearly indicated by the word "counterfeit," "copy," "restrike," or "reproduction" incused in the metal or printed on the paper thereof, with the exception of items produced prior to 1933 and generally accepted by numismatists and not in any way misrepresented as genuine;

I agree to represent a numismatic item to be genuine only when, to the best of my knowledge and belief, it is authentic;

I agree to fulfill all contracts made by me, either orally or written, to make prompt payments upon delivery, and to return immediately any item that is not satisfactory;

I agree to give aid to members in their quest for numismatic knowledge.

Objectives of the A.N.A.

A Non-Profit Educational Association Chartered by Congress

Its objects are to encourage and promote the science of numismatics by the acquirement and study of coins, paper money, tokens, and medals; to cultivate fraternal relations among collectors and students; to encourage and assist new collectors and to foster the interest of youth in the subject; to stimulate and advance affiliations between collectors and kindred organizations in the United States and foreign countries; to acquire and disperse trustworthy numismatic information and news; to form and maintain a cabinet of numismatic specimens and a library of numismatic literature and visual aids for the use and benefit of its members, and to demonstrate the fact that numismatics is an educational, serious and entertaining pursuit; and generally to represent coin collecting interests as a national organization.

(1967... 20th edition)

Over the years, no standard reference book has been of greater value to coin collectors than R.S. Yeoman's best-selling RED BOOK. This 20th edition affirms its position as the numismatist's indispensable authority on U. S. coins. The 1967 RED BOOK (it's also known as "A Guide Book of United States Coins") contains many changes and datings from the 19th addition. Cataloging the vast field of American coinage from 1616 to the present, it features the latest coin values in 7 condition columns, gives mint figures adjacent to dates, lists commemoratives in alphabetical order and has grading guides for every type. 256 pages, gold-stamped soil-resistant hard-cover. At your dealer's and other stores. $1.75. No. 9051.

NATIONAL CURRENCY — SERIES 1929

A FEW DESIRABLE SPECIMENS OF THE SCARCE BROWN SEALS

Many younger collectors are diligently hunting National Currency (national bank notes) series of 1929, with seals in brown ink. These notes are becoming scarce, even rare in an uncirculated state. I never became overly feverish about the small size notes, since I was at the time running a temperature over the old large size series.

However, a few small size notes have accumulated, each specimen exceptionally new and bright, unless otherwise described. There are a few #1 serials. Please read the offerings carefully — there is only one of each. First checks will get these.

The numbers are from Friedberg's 5th Edition: 1800, 1801, 1802, 1803, and 1804; while the rarity and type designations are taken from Donlon's 2nd Edition.

Unique Autographed Notes

$5 Dallas National, Dallas, rarity 2, Type I, bearing eight signatures — the four normally appearing, and four hand-autographed by E. E. Jones, register, W. O. Woods, treasurer, J. C. Tenison, cashier and J. D. Gillespie, president, Messrs. Jones and Woods each signed directly below his regulation signature, while Messrs. Tenison and Gillespie each signed above his regular signature. For many years this has been a conversation piece — and doubt if there is another in existence	$125
$5 First National, Swayzee, Indiana, rarity 1, Type II, serial #3, personally signed by G. H. Haines as cashier, above his normal signature, and by H. T. Munea, president, also above his regular signature. Jones and Wood did not sign this one personally. But it is half as good as the Texas note described above. Both of these notes in brilliant condition — Swayzee note	$62.50

A STATEMENT OF LIQUIDATION TO OUR CUSTOMERS

We are liquidating Peachtree Coin Shop but will be doing it over a period of three years. The liquidation will be orderly in order not to depress the coin market. We have a fairly extensive stock of rolls and sets of U. S. coins. Our rare and scarce stock will not be offered through mail order except on special occasions and in small quantities. We have an extensive stock of half cents, large cents, Indian head cents, three cent nickels, in both silver and nickel, shield nickels, and many of these coins are in proof and uncirculated condition. We doubt that there are over ten coin dealers in America whose stock will equal or surpass our stock. If you have any doubt of this statement, ask anyone who has visited Peachtree Coin Shop. From time to time this material will be offered for sale. We have made this decision after many months of deliberation and we are going to leave the coin business to the younger dealers. The items advertised in our ads we prefer to offer to collectors and investors rather than dealers. After all, it has been the collectors and customers that have made our business a success. We will not decline dealers' orders but prefer non-dealers.

The Republic of Panama

1966 PANAMA PROOF SET

QUESTION AND ANSWER FORUM

The Republic of Panama has announced that it would sell 1966 specimen Proof Sets for $15.00 each plus 25c handling. At a recent Washington news conference the Republic of Panama announced the appointment of Paramount International Coin Corporation as its official distributing agent. The news that the Republic of Panama, one of America's closest Latin American allies, would issue Proof sets for the first time in history made headline news in numismatic publications and in newspapers throughout the Western Hemisphere. In the space below we answer your questions about the new 1966 Republic of Panama Proof Sets.

QUESTION NO. 1

WHAT PART DOES PARAMOUNT INTERNATIONAL COIN CORPORATION PLAY IN THE PROOF SET ISSUANCE?

After reviewing various numismatic firms in the United States and in other parts of the world the Republic of Panama appointed Paramount to be its worldwide agent for the new Proof sets.

Paramount will accept orders ON BEHALF OF THE REPUBLIC OF PANAMA, attend to correspondence and inquiries relating to the sets and will take care of all mailing and shipping for the Republic of Panama. By selecting Paramount the government of Panama assured collectors of North America and Europe (the areas of the world with the largest number of collectors) that they would be able to place their orders with a recognized leading numismatic firm... and receive their sets packaged to the standards required by numismatists.

As an added ADVANTAGE TO COLLECTORS the Republic of Panama, by selecting Paramount, made it possible for collectors in the U. S. to order sets without the formalities of import and customs duties and other red tape which would surround the sets if they had been ordered from a foreign country.

QUESTION NO. 2

HOW MANY 1966 PANAMA PROOF SETS WILL BE STRUCK?

Sets will be struck equal only to the number of orders received by July 31, 1966 or until Mint capacity has been reached before that time. This means that there will be no leftover speculative or unsold quantities overhanging the market. If you have studied numismatic history you will know that many Proof sets, commemoratives and other similar pieces have been wholesaled in bulk by the thousands once the public bought all it wanted at the full retail price.

The result of such actions has been that anyone paying the full retail price has seen his investment drop in value. NOT SO WITH THE PANAMA PROOF SETS. Here, long-last and long-overdue is an issue WITH THE PROTECTION OF THE COLLECTOR in mind. There will be no speculative quantities or hoards overhanging the market. Paramount will HAVE NO SETS AVAILABLE. To avoid a conflict of interest or possible misunderstanding PARAMOUNT will not have a single set for sale after the closing date.

A few of the Paramount directors have purchased sets (paying $15.00 each plus 25c per set handling, and buying no more than 25 sets each) because they sincerely believe that they will be good investments over the years. They are paying the same price you are... and are making their purchases public. We would be pleased to furnish anyone desiring a list of Paramount directors (and family members) who have purchased sets for themselves — if such request is made after the order closing date of July 31st. The fact that the directors of Paramount believe in the sets and are investing their own personal money is Proof of the confidence they have in the sets... just like a stock broker buying personally some shares that he is distributing in a new issue.

Anyone wanting to buy 1966 Panama Proof sets after the closing date of July 31, 1966 will have to obtain them by offering original purchasers a profit. THERE WILL BE NONE AVAILABLE FROM PARAMOUNT.

QUESTION NO. 3

WILL I BE ABLE TO GET PROOF SETS OF PANAMA IN 1967, 1968, 1969 AND OTHER FUTURE YEARS?

The Republic of Panama has announced the intention to strike Proof sets on a continuous basis... as the U. S. and Canadian governments have done. It has appointed Paramount as the official agent for the next seven years. It is planned by the Republic of Panama to give purchasers of the 1966 sets ADVANCE NOTICE of 1967, 1968 and other Proof sets of future years as they become available. Thus you will be able to build a beautiful continuous series PAYING NO MORE THAN THE OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT ISSUE PRICE.

QUESTION NO. 4

IS $15.00 A FAIR ISSUE PRICE FOR THE PANAMA PROOF SETS?

The issue price of $15.00 per set (plus 25c per set handling) IS THE OFFICIAL PRICE AUTHORIZED BY THE REPUBLIC OF PANAMA. This price was set after careful analysis of a number of factors, including:

- (1) The high-quality of the sets. Each set will be carefully struck with all of the care and patience possible, assuring collectors of gem quality.
- (2) The limited number of sets struck. The number of 1966 Panama Proof Sets will be in the thousands... not in the hundreds of thousands or millions. The economies which may be affected by mass-producing sets by the hundreds of thousands or millions are just not possible with a limited issue.
- (3) The set will be a large set and will contain SIX pieces... the 1 centavo, 5 centavos, 10 centavos, 25 centavos, 50 centavos, and the dollar-size 1 Balboa piece.

The price of $15.00 per set amounts to only $2.50 per coin... much less than the price charged for many MEDALS and NON-COINS of similar quality. The $15.00 price for the ENTIRE COMPLETE 1966 Panama Proof Set is less than you might expect to pay for the Proof dollar-size Balboa alone. In fact, many limited-issue world crowns of comparable quality have sold for well over $15.00.

Issue Price is dependent, to a degree, upon the quantity minted. In the past many limited-issue sets have had higher issue prices. The 1939 Arkansas set (containing three Uncirculated half dollars) was issued at $10.00 per set... and catalogues $400.00 today. One of America's most famous sets, the Uncirculated Pan-Pacific set of 1915, originally sold for $200.00 ($96.00 more than the face value of the coins in the set). Today it takes $10,000.00 or more to buy one of these sets... if, indeed, you can find someone willing to sell.

QUESTION NO. 5

WILL THE SETS BE AVAILABLE AT DISCOUNTS, HIDDEN OR OTHERWISE, TO VOLUME PURCHASERS? WILL "INSIDERS" RECEIVE SPECIAL OR FAVORED PRICES?

No! The price of $15.00 WAS OFFICIALLY AUTHORIZED AND ANNOUNCED BY THE REPUBLIC OF PANAMA. It is a firm Mint-issue price to ANY AND ALL persons, dealers, collectors and investors who want to purchase the sets. Paramount is the ONE AND ONLY official government agent . . . and Paramount has pledged that the $15.00 per set price will be maintained to one and all. Even directors and employees of Paramount who may desire to buy sets are governed by the same rules: they must pay $15.00 per set (plus 25c handling per set) and they cannot order more than 25 sets.

It has been proven many times before in the numismatic marketplace that the granting of discounts, commissions and rebates has served only to UNDERMINE the price structure and confidence in the sets. When you order your Panama Proof sets for $15.00 each you do so with the absolute assurance that NO OTHER COLLECTOR, DEALER OR ANYONE ELSE is getting a more favorable price.

And . . . there will be no "volume" sales. The Republic of Panama has limited the number of sets that may be purchased by any single person to NO MORE THAN 25 SETS. Any person ordering more than 25 sets will have his excess refunded. THERE WILL BE NO EXCEPTIONS TO THIS RULE. Dealers wanting to sell the 1966 Panama Proof sets may order sets at the regular price of $15.00 each . . . the same as anyone else. Their profit will depend upon the future appreciation of the sets; just as it has with other rare sets . . . the 1936 U. S. Proof sets, for example.

WHAT PRICE FUTURE DOES THE 1966 PANAMA PROOF SET HAVE?

Although no one can accurately predict the future price of anything, probably MORE PRECAUTIONS ARE BEING TAKEN TO SAFEGUARD YOUR INTERESTS than with ANY other Proof set in history. The Republic of Panama has guaranteed that the quantity struck will be limited, the closing date of July 31, 1966 will be FINAL and, (this is very important) none will be restruck FOR ANY REASON. With all of these safeguards we believe that the 1966 Panama Proof set offers outstanding potential. What the low-mintage 1936 U. S. Proof Set (just 3,837 issued) and the low-mintage 1954 Canadian Proof-Like sets (7,426 issued) have done price-wise is history. We believe that the limited-mintage 1966 Panama Proof Sets offer similar potential.

QUESTION NO. 7

CAN THE CROWN-SIZE (SILVER DOLLAR-SIZE) BALBOA BE ORDERED SEPARATELY IN PROOF CONDITION?

No. The Balboa cannot be ordered separately. The only Proof Balboas of 1966 in existence will be those issued as part of the 1966 Panama Proof Sets. As the Proof Balboa will be greatly desired by crown collectors, the inclusion of the Proof Balboa as part of the set will be a special "bonus" to purchasers of the set . . . and should contribute greatly to the rise in value of the 1966 Panama Proof set over the years.

QUESTION NO. 8

IS DELIVERY GUARANTEED IF I PLACE MY ORDER FOR 1966 PANAMA PROOF SETS?

Orders for 1966 Panama Proof" sets will be received only until July 31, 1966. The acceptance of orders is contingent upon the Mint's ability to meet the demand. Each order must be accompanied by your remittance and orders are limited to 25 sets per person. Receipt of any order and remittance will not constitute acceptance of the order. The Republic of Panama reserves the right to reduce or cancel any order, in the event of a reduction or cancellation of your order, a FULL CASH REFUND will be made on any undelivered sets.

QUESTION NO. 9

ARGENTEUS

The new silverpiece called "Argenteus" pleads for the unity of the Free World under the leadership of the United States of America. Every collector of modern silver coins should acquire these most interesting pieces. The issue is limited.

The Argenteus is coined of pure silver in Munich, a capital of art in Europe. The reverse is always the same and bears a six-pointed Cross of lilies as a sign of world-unity. The inscription is in Latin and means: For the Prosperity of the World.

From left to right: Maria Theresia, Empress of the Holy Roman Empire — Eternal Germany, Uta of Naumburg — Th. Heuss, First President of the Federal Rep. of Germany — Reunion, the Source of Life for Germany — C. Adenauer, First Chancellor of the Federal Rep. of Germany — Reverse (I and III).

Shown in original size! Brilliant proof! Silver content 999/1000, as pure as possible!

The small Argenteus (Single) 15 gr.	4.00
The big Argenteus (Triple) 45 gr.	8.00
5 different small pieces, together	18.00
5 different big pieces, together	35.00
All 10 pieces on this page, together	50.00

The mailing will be at our expense as Registered Letter by Air Mail. Name sizes and types! Send your order and check (payable in advance) to

RARE HAWAIIAN COINS AT DISCOUNT PRICES

Low mintage. Listed page 248 of the Red Book. Many melted, especially dollars of which over 400,000 were melted, according to the records at San Francisco. Many additional coins of each denomination were lost to the sea during a revolt by the people against the government in 1893. Few were left. In fact—during my visit to Hawaii I searched the Islands to locate Hawaiian coins and discovered to my amazement that few people living on the Islands even knew that these coins existed. Most inhabitants were amazed when I showed them coins struck by the U. S. Mint for circulation in Hawaii. They are not only no longer in circulation, but few Hawaiians realize that at one time they had their own coinage. Check your Red Book—Excellent investment potential per dollar invested.

Numismatic Books from ANCO

CHINESE CURRENCY

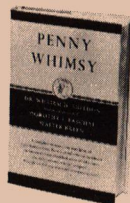

This excellent volume on the coinage of China has been completely revised by Virgil Hancock. It is a big handsome 272 page book containing hundreds of beautiful line drawings and plates.

Among the extremely interesting facts you will learn is the illustrated history of how Chinese characters are formed and what they mean . . . how to read dates on Chinese coins.

A new price supplement is included free with each book.

Chinese Currency is a LIMITED EDITION, available for $12.50.

PENNY WHIMSY

Here in these historic coppers, in that wonderful numismatic period of 1793 to 1814 covered by Penny Whimsy, one recalls, feels and relives the stormy but glorious past.

It has 413 pages, packed with history and facts excitingly told. There are 51 plates, with over 400 individual illustrations. Penny Whimsy is available for $10.00

NORTH AMERICAN CURRENCY

North American Currency ranges from colonial issues through broken bank notes to state and national currency, with sections on Canada and Mexico. Over 2,188 different items are illustrated in this big 912 page book.

North American Currency is perhaps as comprehensive a coverage of this fascinating subject as can be expected. Available for $15.00.

MEDALLIC PORTRAITS OF JOHN F. KENNEDY

Medallic Portraits of John F. Kennedy . . . an illustrated catalog of the coins, medals and tokens issued in honor of the late president.

More than 600 varieties are listed in this lavishly illustrated volume. A relative valuation guide is included, as well as a practical numbering system.
